4th Re-Accreditation

El Ahram Hebdo

The first American school to host an enormous francophone event: The 19th edition of the International Festival of Francophone Schools Theatre

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

"Excellence in education is when we do everything we can to make sure they become everything they can."

Carol Ann Tomlinson

Throughout its seventeen years of operation, New Generation International Schools has successfully worked unceasingly towards the school's improvement plan. At the core of all school decisions, year after year, NG has steadily climbed the ladder of success. As we climb that ladder, we become more powerful and more successful.

Over the years, our accreditation bodies, COGNIA and Middle State Association (MSA) standards and expectations have defined and rated our levels of success. Consequently, not only have we received a 7-year accreditation by MSA, but this year, in March 2022, we also earned our fourth, highly distinguished accreditation from COGNIA. I am proud to report that New Generation International Schools received an outstanding, above average score of 369/400.

Furthermore, the average (range) score of all Cognia Improvement Network (CIN) institutions, that were evaluated for accreditation in the last five years, has been somewhere between 278 and 283.

Significantly, out of the 30 COGNIA accreditation standards indicators, New Generation International Schools scored 4/4 in 26 indicators and 3/4 in 4 indicators.

I would like to congratulate our NG community on this marvelous score. After all, New Generation is not a school that talks the talk, but it is surely and obviously a school that walks the talk.

YOUR VISION & OUR MISSION = THE BALANCED APPROACH

5- 'SPORTS is ETHICS' - الرياضة أخلاق

Recently, New Generation International Schools has held three friendly football competitions, for High School, Middle School, and Elementary, titled 'SPORTS is ETHICS'. The goal of these matches was to teach sportsmanship, spread good manners and morals, reject fanaticism, and to emphasize how to control anger while playing. It must be noted that the students showed good manners throughout the entire period.
